MY BELIEFS ARE....

- All people have strengths.
- All people benefit from support and encouragement.
- All people have different but equally valued skills, abilities and knowledge.
- All families have hopes, dreams, and wishes for their children.
- All families are resourceful and should have equal access to resources.
- All families should be assisted in ways that help them maintain dignity and hope.
- All families should be equal partners in the relationship with service providers.
- All providers should work to meet the needs of families.
